

multifaceted intervention, as opposed to the more traditional mental health services, I am the manager of Financial Empowerment and inclusion with the National Disability Institute and I believe you have found a worthwhile support that you can use again. Thank you for the support of the staff that we do ourselves for people with disabilities. The focus was on helping them to get the National Disability Institute and we greatly appreciate the work and the commitment that you have in ensuring economic empowerment for people with disabilities around the country. Right before we get started, I am going to run it over to my colleague, Helen, who will give a brief introduction to the program, or brief overview, and then the work for today's session is being broadcast through your computer. Please make sure your system is turned on or your headphones are plugged in. You can connect to the work broadcast or work broadcast page which we use here. I've actually been the provider of the work steps, and we want to make sure that you're going to be comfortable with all the steps of our work and sharing with broadcast. I would not have used anything on your computer if you prefer to listen to the audio. In addition, you can also be notified when you are here. We will receive some information about the work and the work on the date of the broadcast. We are aware that just a few more questions may come up with it.

or feedback regarding it provided during the session. The session can be found in the video above you will appear in the lower right corner of the session platform. If you do not see the video above you, you may need to open it by clicking the video button which usually appears in the upper right hand corner of the session platform. If you would like to share the work above your computer, you can do so by connecting some of the other people like the one I did just
