

Washington Insider

Newsweek's Washington Insider is a weekly newsletter highlighting the latest policy news that impacts institutions, markets and business opportunities in all parts of the country. The Washington Insider tracks legislative and policy activities getting underway in capital Hill, specifically with a view of factors affecting real estate development.

Free!

Trade

Yes

March 2011, Vol. 1, Issue 1

Contents

Congress Passes Omnibus Appropriations Bill

Legislation, Commerce for Small Business, Securities for Retail Investors

Small Business Administration to Issue Updated SBA Guidelines

Oversee Department Budget

Congress Passes Omnibus Appropriations Bill

Congress has today passed its omnibus appropriations bill, which provides for continuing funding for major federal budget programs, including those that provide support to affiliated with institutions and their leaders. This might be another opportunity for you, either as a participant in the affiliated with institutions, or as a

- Legislative bodies across the United States
- Revised funding for the Small Business Administration (SBA) largely provide continuing for funding of programs
- Revised funding for the Small Business Administration (SBA) largely provide - some of which have increasing emphasis