NDI Alternative Finance Project Disclosure Statements

1. I/We understand and agree that the information in this application and otherwise collected by NDI may, depending upon the amount and type of credit requested, be provided to one or more loan servicing financial institutions in connection with my/our request for financing.
2. Certification: I/We certify that the information provided in this application is true and correct. I/We authorize NDI to verify the information provided, as of the date set forth with my/our signature on this application. I/we understand that the NDI loan staff will assist with the preparation and updating of this application as information becomes available in an effort to assure that the information presented to the loan servicing financial institution(s) is accurate. In the event that your application is pre-qualified, NDI and its loan servicing financial institutions can in our sole discretion, refuse to make the loan, if, (1) the NDI or the loan servicing financial institution discovers that you, the applicant(s) have made any false or misleading statement in the application documentation and or in the process of applying for the loan, or (2) NDI or the loan servicing financial institution discovers additional information that we determine may adversely affect credit worthiness or your ability to repay the loan.
3. Privacy Notice: NDI collects nonpublic personal information about you from the following sources: Information received from you on the loan application; references, household bills and checking accounts; information about your transactions with others, and information from consumer reporting agencies. NDI does not disclose any nonpublic personal information about applicants or former applicants to anyone, except as permitted by law. NDI restricts access to nonpublic personal information about you to those NDI employees, loan servicing financial institutions and collection agents who need to know the information to provide the loan and loan services to you. NDI maintains physical, electronic and procedural safeguards to protect your information.
4. I/We understand that NDI will request a credit report(s), as appropriate, from TransUnion in connection with this assistive technology loan application or in connection with any update, extension or renewal of any credit extension as a result of this application and for outcome reports. In addition, I/we understand that if I/we ask, NDI will tell me/us whether NDI has requested my/our credit report, and the name and address of the credit reporting agency furnishing the report.
5. In the event that I/we do not make a payment as agreed, NDI will initiate collection activities that may include repossession of the assistive technology device, Commercial Claims Court and Property, Income Execution, or other such remedies as may be available under New York or New Jersey law, as appropriate. I/We, along with any other applicant, co-applicant, and/or co-signer, will be responsible for any and all associated collection costs. If in default, I/we authorize NDI to release information to third parties necessary for collection activities. Further collection and disclosure details will be outlined in the Fixed Rate Note and Security Agreement provided by the servicing financial institution at the time of the loan closing.
6. NDI will contact you on a periodic basis to collect information including, but not limited to, outcomes. This information will be reported to third parties as aggregate data, i.e.: number of loans, loan purposes, employment, earnings and the impact of the loan provision related to productivity and quality of life. In addition, you may be asked to participate in outcome surveys conducted by the AT3 Center: is a sponsored project of the Association of Assistive Technology Act Programs (ATAP) operated under a five-year grant (2016 – 2021) from the Administration for Community Living U.S. Department of Health and Human Services.
7. Acknowledgement of Receipt - NDI AFP Notice of Privacy: The Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 (HIPAA) requires that we provide you with a copy of NDI's Notice of Privacy Practices, and that we make a good faith attempt to obtain your acknowledgement of this receipt.
8. I/We further understand that issuance of a loan does not imply any type of warranty by NDI or any other lender regarding suitability, condition, merchantability or safety of the device or equipment that you purchase with the loan. I/We understand that I/we alone are responsible for selecting the devices or equipment to be financed. Therefore, I/we agree to make no claims against NDI or the loan servicing financial institution or collection agents, and I/we hereby release NDI, any other loan servicing financial institution, and all of their respective agents, from and against all liability, for defects in any device or equipment or any accident or injury resulting from the use of any such device or equipment.

9. I/We hereby also authorize NDI, and any loan servicing financial institution(s) to whom NDI may refer this application, to disclose to NDI any information about any of us that the loan servicing financial institution(s) or collection agents obtain or compile that may be relevant to decisions NDI may make with respect to the application or loan

10. Important information about procedures for opening an account: Why are we asking for this information? To help the government fight the funding of terrorism and money laundering activities, Federal law requires all financial institutions to obtain, verify, and record information that identifies each person who opens an account. What this means for you: when you open an account, we will ask for your name, address, date of birth, and other information that will allow us to identify you. We may also ask to see your driver's license or other identifying documentation.

11.  Unless checked, no applicant(s) with an interest in this account is either (1) a senior military, governmental, or political official in a non-US country or (2) clearly associated with or an immediate family member of such an official. If checked, identify the name of the official, office held, and country:

NDI Pledges to Uphold the Following Loan Applicant Rights:

1. NDI pledges to provide loan services in a manner that assures privacy, non-discrimination and respect for loan applicants' cultural and ethnic environments.

2. To receive accurate and timely information regarding fees associated with the loan application.

3. To be treated with respect, courtesy and fairness by all staff.

4. To be actively included in a comprehensive financial assessment, including the preparation of the loan application and activities associated with any late payment or default of a loan pre-qualified by the Loan Committee.

5. To have services provided by trained staff in accordance with prevailing law and policy.

6. To receive services designed for specific individual needs, guided by a concern for the best interests of the loan applicant.

7. To have NDI AFP staff assist in resolving any questions or complaints regarding the services or documentation of services. A full and fair appeals process is available, as outlined below.

8. To have the right to access records in accordance with NDI policy and procedures. Application records will be held on file for seven years from denial or payment in full.

9. NDI will facilitate accommodations with community partners to ensure equal access to the Alternative Finance Project loan application, provision, loan servicing and collection processes.

10. Loan Appeal: The appeals process will provide the applicant the opportunity to submit additional information that may be helpful in reviewing the application again. The applicant(s) has the right to an appeal within 30 days, as outlined in the denial letter. As part of the appeals process, the loan committee will review new information and make a decision of pre-approval or denial. The project manager will send a letter outlining the decision. If denied, the decision will be final and can no longer be appealed. The applicant may submit a new application 12 months following the appeal denial.
